HALSTEAD, the Republican braggart and bully, cut up one of his cowardly capers when he followed John R. McLean, of the Enquirer, to Saratoga and there through his next best friend, one Col. Terrill, a murderer, who had shot down his man in cold blood in Kentucky, made a farcical movement of calling him to account for utterances made by the Cincinnati Telegram. The bully knew McLean was connected in no way with the Telegram and was not responsible for what it might say, but it was a safe way in displaying his bravery therefore this game of bluff. But now comes the editor of the Telegram denouncing Halstead as a braggart and a coward, reiterating all he has said concerning him and courting a meeting. Will the bully satisfy him, no indeed. He has called off his murderer friend, and hides himself behind the cowardly assumption that "the matter is now between McLean and the editor of the Telegram!"

A friend of "J. N.," writing under the title of Robert Hollis, thus says: "You will please announce that my friend J. N., the philosopher, who has sacrificed his very name, and who wishes to be known only by the initials J. N., and who wants no praise or personal notices from the press of the country, will lift the veil in City Hall on the 24th day of Sept. His theme is 'Truth and its mysteries and how little we know.' To sustain his cause a small admission fee will be kindly received from the men; ladies free and cordially invited to attend. J. N. is attached to Napoleon from the kindness shown during his visit there, and desires a large crowd in order that he can assume all that peculiar prejudice which truth ever engenders when first promulgated to a world which has dreaded it from time immemorial. All for the cause, which is J. N.'s idol."

The Cincinnati Enquirer is certainly a great paper. Last week it very generously sent out to the Democratic papers of the State a large supplement, containing matter of interest to Democrats, and this week it treats the Republican papers of the State in the same way. These supplements must have cost the proprietor of the Enquirer thousands of dollars in material and labor. His generosity is commendable and highly appreciated by the country press. The display card of this great newspaper may be found in this issue, to which attention is called.

A JEFFERSONIAN Democrat from away back, a good newspaper man, a classmate of Jas. A. Garfield in Hiram College, and now Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, is Chauncey F. Black. He is a son of Judge Jeremiah Black, and is 46 years old. Since 1838 he has been Lieutenant-Governor of Pennsylvania, and he says he is going to be Governor. For ten years he has been a correspondent of the New York Sun. He is the originator of the Jeffersonian societies.

The more we see of the workings of the Dow liquor law the more foolish it appears. The Attorney-General has decided that in towns where the local option feature has been adopted, brewers may establish agencies for the sale of beer in quantities of not less than one gallon. We will soon see agencies of this kind springing up in these towns and the purchaser being compelled to buy in larger quantities will as a matter of course consume larger quantities. Verily the law is beautiful in all its features! Instead of having the sale of beer abolished as you expect when voting for local option, only the manner in which it is sold is changed. Drinkers who have heretofore been in the habit of taking only a glass or two will guzzle a gallon at one sitting, and if he is not in the habit of getting drunk he soon will be. No wonder the Prohibitionists do not like the law. They want a prohibitory law that will prohibit.—Marion Mirror.

A Columbus dispatch to the Cleveland Leader says: The farmers of Champaign county are after the Bohemian oats swindlers with a sharp stick. A few days ago they held a meeting and raised $500 with which to employ attorneys and detectives to hunt down and prosecute the rascals. The first move was to employ John T. Norris, the Springfield detective, and he has gone at the work with considerable energy. Those who have been dealing in the notes for this kind of business were visited, and in many instances gave them up for fear of prosecution. A large number were seen in the hands of the detective, representing thousands of dollars. It is said that Norris has gone to Michigan with a large number of requisitions on the Governor of that State, and expects to return with a number of the offenders. Since the Ohio Legislature enacted a law last winter making it a penitentiary offense, with a penalty of not more than three years or less than one year imprisonment, or a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, for dealing in seeds or cereals of a fictitious value, these rascals have left Ohio and gone to Michigan.

What Gen. Sedgwick Says.

EMPORIA, Kan., Aug. 19.—Gen. A. G. Sedgwick passed through this city yesterday, on his way to Paso del Norte, to investigate the status of the alleged Mexican outrages on Cutting and other American citizens. He said: "I am acting only as an agent for the government, and have no power to arbitrate in the matter. My instructions are to proceed to the city of Chihuahua and to their investigate all the evidence in the Cutting affair. What will be the result of the investigation cannot be foreseen; but if the government finds that Mr. Cutting has been dealt with in an unjust manner; if it can be found that the rights of American citizens have been at all abused; if the investigation develops that in this or any previous case American citizens have been wronged, the people of America can rest assured that the government will take a firm stand, and if war is found to be unavoidable, then, without the slightest hesitation, war will be declared."

Useless Expenses. The following is an account of the use of tobacco in a moderate form: If a man spends on each of the six working days of the week five cents for chewing tobacco and ten cents for cigars, and ten cents for cigars on Sunday, the amount for one week expended for tobacco will be $1.00; for six months $28.00. This taken as the capital at seven per cent, compound interest per annum, with the above rate of expense, it will amount in five years to $304.96; in ten years $1,151.97; in twenty years $2,103.94; in twenty-five years $3,405.37; in thirty-five years $7,500.08; in forty years $10,900.07; in forty-five years $15,690.59; in fifty years $22,123.98; in fifty-five years $31,936.16; in sixty years $45,351.11; in sixty-five years $74,291.41. Hence a boy who uses tobacco according to the above, from the age of fifteen years, will expend to his eightieth year the amount (at $1.00 per week with compound interest per annum) of $64,281.41. Quite a fortune to some men. Save one dollar per week, and at age of eighty you will have the amount. "Take care of the dimes and the dollars will take care of themselves."—Western Plowman.

Paralyzed the Court. A young woman from the country was suing her ex-sweetheart for breach of promise, and the lawyers were as usual making all sorts of inquisitive questions. "You say," remarked one, "that the defendant frequently sat very close to you?" "Yes sir," was the reply, with a blush. "How close?" "Close enough so's one cheer was all the sittin' room needed." "And you say he put his arm around you?" "No, I didn't." "What did you say, then?" "I said he put both arms around me." "Then what?" "He hugged me." "Very hard?" "Yes he did, so durned hard that I came purty near hollerin' right out." "Why didn't you holler?" "Cause I was afeared he'd stop." The court fell off the bench, and had to be carried out and put under the hydrant for the purpose of resuscitation.—Baltimorean.

MILLER & KETCHUM.

Over Clewett & Fisk's. Conneaut is shrouded in gloom over the sad fate of the family of Martin Stough. Tuesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Stough, whose home was near Conneaut creek, went down to do the family washing, it being the custom of the residents in that section of the place to do their washing near the creek where the water was easy of access. During the afternoon and before Mrs. Stough was aware that her children were close to the creek, the youngest, Hattie, a bright child of eight, got into the stream and was being swept out into the current, when she was perceived by her older sisters, Aba, aged fourteen and Bertha, aged twelve. Both ran to their sister's rescue and they too got beyond their depth. The agonizing cries of her drowning children reached their mother's ears, but not until Hattie had sunk and the others were being drawn under. Mrs. Stough rushed into the stream and in her attempts to rescue her children went down with them. Her screams filled the valley and attracted the attention of trainmen, who hastened with all possible speed to the spot, but not until all had disappeared. The bodies were recovered and taken to their home which they had left in perfect health an hour before.

Storm in Putnam County.

OTTAWA, O., Aug. 23.—A tremendous storm which prevailed at intervals here and in other sections of Putnam county, from Saturday night to Sunday night, did much damage to fruit, growing crops, and trees of all kinds—many fruit trees being broken and seriously injured. The pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The distress of the body is equalled or surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victim suffer double affliction. The relief which is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the causes of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A negro crank has been given 90 days at Pittsburg for saying that Christ had sent him to kill Grover Cleveland and that the latter had only 69 days to live.

The true secret of success is merit. This is so with Red Star Cough Cure, a purely vegetable compound, entirely free from opiates, poisons and narcotics, and which has received the public endorsement of physicians and chemists everywhere. Twenty-five cents.

That Tired Feeling

The warm weather has a debilitating effect, especially upon those who are within doors most of the time. The peculiar, yet common, complaint known as "that tired feeling," is the result. This feeling can be entirely overcome by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives new life and strength to all the functions of the body.

"I could not sleep; had no appetite. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon began to sleep soundly; could get up without that tired and languid feeling; and my appetite improved." R. A. SANFORD, Kent, Ohio.

Strengthen the System

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence. "Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. V. TUCKER, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla beats all others, and is worth its weight in gold." I. BARINGS, 130 Bank Street, New York City.
